Day 3: Rotorua

Black Water Rafting + Transfer – 260 NZ$

Waitomo is world-famous for the Waitomo Glowworm Caves, and being New Zealanders we couldn't just observe this spectacular natural phenomenon from a simple observation deck, so we invented Black Water Rafting!

The tour takes approximately three hours, with one hour exploring this spectacular underground river system through a combination of walking and floating on tyre inner tubes, with stunning glowworm displays illuminating the roof of the cave.

Your guide will look after you every step of the way and although no experience is necessary, a moderate level of fitness and ability is required, as the tour involves some rock scrambling, a small waterfall jump, and a short section of absolute darkness! Just bring swimwear and a towel!

Provided:

- All equipment including wetsuits and footwear
- Complimentary hot soup and bagels after the tour
- Entry to the Waitomo Museum of Caves
- Transfer from and back to Waitomo

Two Cave Combo (Waitomo Glowworm Caves & Ruakuri Cave) + Transfer – 225 NZ$

Discover the two best glowworm caves in New Zealand on this truly unforgettable experience. Glide silently by boat through the glowworm grotto and get up-close and personal with glowworm selfies in Ruakuri Cave.

If you're looking for a truly unforgettable glowworm experience, then the most popular combo is for you. Discover the magic of both the world-famous Waitomo Glowworm Caves, as well as the enchanting Ruakuri Cave.

Discover thousands of illuminating glowworms as you explore these glittering underground worlds on two walking tours. Glide silently by boat through the Glowworm Grotto in the Waitomo Glowworm Caves, then get up-close and personal for a photo opportunity with these magical creatures in Ruakuri Cave – New Zealand's longest underground walking tour.

Forest Ziplining Canopy Tour – 159 NZ$

Head deep into one of New Zealand's most ancient forests and let the fun begin on this 3 hour eco canopy adventure.

You will experience over 600 meters of ziplines and swing bridges as your expert Kiwi guide leads your small group through the forest.

Learn about the native wildlife and ecology as you zipline from tree to tree. #1 ranked Outdoor Activity in Rotorua. Not to be missed!

Maximum weight limit of 120kg.

River Sledging (Rotorua) – 109 NZ$

White Water River Sledging (also known as River Boarding) involves navigating down river rapids on a specially designed body board. You are in charge of your own sledge (body board) - propelled down the Kaituna River by the flippers on your feet. This is a really unique way to experience the river's awesome rapids - at eye-level - and Rotorua's stunning natural surroundings.

Just bring swimwear, a towel and your sense of adventure! A reasonable level of fitness is required and you must know how to swim to do this activity.

Wetsuits and footwear are provided.

White Water Rafting (Rotorua) – 99 NZ$

On this 3 hour white water rafting experience along the Kaituna River you will journey through 14 rapids and 3 waterfalls - including the Highest Commercially Rafted Waterfall in the World (the 7 metre high Tutea Falls)!

Absolutely no experience necessary - you don't even need to know how to swim! Kaitiaki Adventures' expert guides will give all the training required and will assist you throughout the trip.

Wetsuits, boots and lifejackets are included. Just bring swimwear and a towel.

ZORB

Straight (250m) ($35)

Superman dive into the ZORB , a giant inflatable ball, with up to two friends and roll down a 250 meter long straight slope. You will slip, slide and laugh your way to the bottom. Riders can even choose to race others down the hill!

Sidewinder (350m) ($55)

Jump into your ZORB with up to two friends, gather up speed, and then let the fun begin! The track twists and turns and you will roll up the sides of 6 huge corners. You will never know what is coming next!

Maximum weight per person is 125KG or 275lb in one OGO.

Straight + Sidewinder ($80)

Mt Tarawera Summit Hike 149 NZ$

Experience unrivaled panoramic views on this 4.5 hour guided walk of Mt Tarawera with Kaitiaki Adventures. Infamous for its eruption on 10 June 1886 this volcano created the world's youngest geothermal valley (Waimangu) and destroyed the legendary Pink and White Terraces. This fully guided hike explores the unique geothermal landscape and history of the area.

Suitable for all abilities and ages, includes an optional run into the volcano crater!

Please bring: Sturdy walking shoes, warm jacket, and a bottle of water.

Guided Glowworm Kayak, Hot Pools & Dinner 240 NZ$

Take a guided Kayak trip across scenic Lake Rotoiti to the spectacular Manupirua Springs Hot Pools, which are only accessible by boat. Have a leisurely soak while your guide cooks an appetising Kiwi BBQ Dinner. After dinner enjoy a sunset paddle across the lake and a visit to the glow worm caves.

Included: Dinner, full training and all required specialist equipment, complimentary transfers from central Rotorua.

Level of Fitness: Paddling time is approximately around 1 hour each way. Recommended minimum weight limit 20kg and maximum 125kg

Please bring: Swimsuit, towel & shorts, everything else is provided.

White Island Boat Day Trip – 399 NZ$

Begin your White Island adventure in Rotorua. Our transport partner will collect you from your Rotorua accommodation and bring you on the scenic journey across to New Zealand's east coast. The 80-minute drive will take you past a number of lakes, through remnants of NZ rainforest and past some of New Zealand's most productive agricultural land. On arrival in Whakatāne, you will join the White Island Tours™ crew for a 5 to 6-hour adventure to explore New Zealand's most active volcano – Whakaari/White Island. Sitting 49km off the coast of New Zealand's North Island, this is one of the world's most accessible live volcanoes. With the majority of the volcano sitting beneath the sea, it means we are able to disembark directly into the crater complex – no mountain climbing required.

Being a live volcano there is little doubt that Whakaari/White Island is home to New Zealand's most impressive geothermal activity. Visitors are able to get up close to roaring steam vents, bubbling pits of mud, hot volcanic streams and the amazing lake of steaming acid. The vivid hues of yellow and orange resulting from the abundant sulphur on the island make it a photographer's dream.

Day 4: Rotorua to Murupara

No add-ons available on that day.

Day 5: Murupara to Taupo

Water Touch Bungy Jump (Taupo) – 180 NZ

Located in the stunning Waikato River Valley, Taupo Bungy is considered one of the world's most spectacular jumps and New Zealand's highest water-touch bungy (at 47 metres). The uniquely engineered cantilever platform reaches out from the cliff-top above the the Waikato River.

At the platform's edge you can choose from a number of bungy jump styles including the 'fall of faith' (jumping off backwards) or the 'baptism' (water-touch where your head and shoulders enter the Waikato River for a refreshing plunge).

Please note the following weight limits apply: minimum 45kg, maximum 180kg.

Lake Taupo Sailing (Taupo) – 50 NZ$

What better way to experience the true beauty of Lake Taupo than onboard the tall ship 'Fearless'. Day 6: Taupo

The Tongariro Crossing (Taupo)

The Tongariro Crossing (Summer, November-April – 70 NZ$)

The Tongariro Crossing is celebrated as one of the best one day walks in the world.

Emerald green lakes sit atop volcanic mountain peaks on this 19.4km track taking you through some of the world's most geographically diverse terrain. Most hikers start early morning (between 5am-7am) as, on average, the trek takes between six and eight hours to complete.

People of all ages can walk the Tongariro Crossing, however a moderate to good level of fitness is required as there are a number of steep inclines. You will be climbing almost 800m in altitude. Due to the rugged and alpine environment, the weather can be unpredictable. Here are the essentials to bring for the Tongariro Crossing:

- Food and plenty of water (at least 2 litres per person)
- Water and windproof clothing
- Hiking boots
- Warm clothing
- Hat and gloves
- Sunscreen and sunglasses

The walk itself is free, the cost is for the shuttle to pick you up from your accommodation and drop you back again.

Watch the Dolphins – 95 NZ$

Meet Kaikoura's Dusky Dolphins in their natural habitat on this 2.5 hour dolphin cruise.

Enjoy unobstructed views on a purpose-built dolphin viewing boat that features upstairs decks as well as walk around bows to enable you to capture the perfect photos.

The displays of acrobatic behaviour, leaps, somersaults and the peculiar repetitive displays of jumps and tail slapping, provide the most incredible oceanic dolphin show on earth.

Swim with Dolphins 180 NZ$

The chance to swim with dolphins is a very special thing, and what better place to do this than the stunning Kaikoura Peninsula.

On this 2.5 hour dolphin encounter you can swim with the dolphins from 20 to 40 minutes depending on how interactive the dolphins are.

With just 16 swimmers on each tour you can expect to get up close and personal with these energetic and life-loving marine mammals.

Whale Watching (Kaikoura) – 150 NZ$

Experience up-close encounters with the world's largest toothed predator - the Giant Sperm Whale - on this 2.5 hour boat tour. Whale Watch Kaikoura is New Zealand's only vessel based whale watching company and offers a 95% success rate in seeing these amazing creatures (with an 80% refund if your tour does not see a whale).

Guided Seal Kayaking (Kaikoura) – 110 NZ$

Voted a 'Top Choice' by Lonely Planet, experience the excitement of watching Fur Seals ducking, weaving and diving around your kayak on this 3.5 hour guided seal kayak tour.

Paddle gently along with these marine creatures as they swim around the Kaikoura Peninsula hunting for their favourite feed of Octopus.

This TripAdvisor Hall of Fame activity includes your kayak, basic paddling lessons and safety briefing, as well as a 15 minute debrief at the end of your tour.

Swim with Seals (Kaikoura) – 120 NZ$

This totally unique 2.5 hour experience allows you to swim with New Zealand Fur Seals (a.k.a Kekenos) in their own spectacular natural environment on the South Island's Kaikoura Coast. Rated one of the world's 'Top 10 Marine Encounters' by Lonely Planet, you will snorkel with seals in shallow waters and spend time watching and learning about these life-loving mammals. Expect to get up close and personal - it's common for the seals to come as close as 3 meters away from you, although as they are wild animals each tour is different!

Wetsuits and snorkels are provided, just bring your swimwear and a towel. Allow 2.5 hours in total (with around 1 hour in the water).
